

An Overview Of Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics

Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics (referred to as JUFE), established in 1923, is situated in Nanchang, the capital city of Jiangxi Province. It is jointly sponsored and governed by the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Education, and the Government of Jiangxi Province. As a higher education institution specializing in economics and management, JUFE also promotes the co-ordinated development of law, engineering, humanities, science, and arts.

Since its inception, JUFE has steadfastly adhered to the motto of “Honesty, Vitality, Integrity, and Tenacity” and the philosophy of “Dedication, Harmony, and Perfection.” These guiding principles have shaped the university's character in cultivating innovative and entrepreneurial talents who embody these values. JUFE is committed to building a university distinguished by high quality, diverse specialties, outstanding talents, rule of law, and moral integrity. Now, JUFE embarks on a new journey, aspiring to be a nationally renowned institution in digital finance and economics, contributing significantly to the economic and social development of Jiangxi Province.

JUFE places a strong emphasis on internationalization, fostering relationships with over 160 partner universities across 40 countries and regions. In 1997, JUFE welcomed its first group of international students from the Vienna University of Economics in Austria. Since then, almost 3000 international students from 151 countries have chosen JUFE for their studies, with 650 full-time international students currently enrolled.

To facilitate the experience for international students, JUFE has established a comprehensive recruiting system, providing expert services and professional management teams. The university regularly organizes academic conferences, international cultural festivals, local cultural tours, summer camps, and a myriad of engaging activities tailored for international students. Moreover, various student associations, including international student volunteer teams, football teams, and volleyball teams, offer opportunities for international students to enrich their campus life and foster mutual exchanges between Chinese and international students.

JUFE, committed to excellence and innovation, envisions becoming a distinctive, prominent, people-oriented, and internationally renowned high-level finance and economics university.
